SB 298 - HB 396

February 21, 1997

SUMMARY OF BILL: Limits members of the Tennessee General Assembly to serving no more than twelve (12) years in either house. The twelve (12) year period will be calculated from the November general election in 1994. The bill also authorizes a representative to run for the senate at the end of twelve (12) consecutive years. However, the person shall not be eligible to run for re-election or be appointed to serve in the same house until expiration of four (4) years following the end of service. The time served by any person to serve less than a full term to fill a vacancy is not included.
